Mr. Ira L. Mosley died at his home in Hopewell Township on Sunday, July 28, 1895, at the age of 52 years. He had been in feeble health for several months, and heart failure was the direct cause of the death.

Mr. Mosley was an upright and successful citizen, and had the confidence and esteem of all his friends. He was a consistent member of the Baptist Church for a number of years. His remains were laid to rest in the Hopewell Churchyard on the day following his death. A widow and six sons survive him.

President Johnson, of the Winthrop College, reports that everything is getting along very well. He says that he is now ready to receive applications at Rock Hill of those who may wish to attend the college. Applicants should be written by the applicant in person, giving the full name, age, place of residence and parent or guardian, and the college to which they wish to enter. The college is now in its 15th year, and should have a knowledge of the elements of the English language.

It is necessary on account of the limited number of dormitories to have applications on file just as early as possible.

The Williamson correspondent of the Greenville News says: "About 5 o'clock last Saturday afternoon, a negro man and woman were coming from the dam below Pelzer, where they had just received their weekly wages. A negro man, who was about 21 years old, was overtaken in the road, knocked down, shot and robbed of $5.00 and a pistol. The man who was shot is still alive but his condition is critical. A 38 calibre ball penetrated his back just above his hip, and after passing some time the doctors were unable to find it. Williams says he will recognize his assailant on sight, as they are together that day. But he does not know their names. The foregoing is taken from the Williamson correspondent of the Greenville News. It is a very interesting story, and we hope that the man who shot the negro will be caught and punished."
